Synopsis

When a man comes to the end of his life, what will be the most important question he will want answered concerning his life? Might it be...did I fulfill my purpose? Did the creator of the universe have a specific purpose for me?

The story: THE ROOKIE, is all about helping each person discover the truth of this question: from God's perspective.

When circumstances over-whelm Elijah: the old parson was recently fired from his church; but, he was asked to stay on for a year to help make a smooth transition to his young Associate, whom he hired years ago; his wife of forty-plus years suddenly died; and he is left to pick up the pieces of his "humble-pie", he decides to commit suicide.

God (I AM) sends a Theophany (an angelic messenger in a physical form: a cinnamon colored cat named: Scooter {named after the Yankee shortstop, Phil Rizzuto) to rescue him.

Scooter is a history-buff on the Negro League Baseball players who were not allowed to play with the white baseball players; with a focus upon the great Satchel Paige. Elijah is a bit of an expert on the history of Baseball. All during the journey, Elijah and Scooter carry on a heated Trivial Pursuit game concerning the two types of baseball players: white and black. Scooter is a Yankee fan and Elijah is a Cubbie fan. {This part of the story is in honor of my dad and my love for the game of baseball}.

Scooter's spiritual mission is to take Elijah on a journey to visit specific venues, in the United States, and to visit with various types of people he does not know. Each of the people at these venues has a spiritual connection to him and his past ministries.

After this journey is completed (Scooter and Elijah travel in a supped-up 1983 Trans Am, Cobalt-blue, hatch-back), he will take him to find Methuselah, the wise, spiritual sage, who will show him how his life and ministries enriched God's kingdom and changed the lives of the people he touched with his biblical counsel. Before they can accomplish this task, they will have to defeat Satan's trap and solve a riddle to keep from being murdered

Elijah will be granted a unique privilege from I AM, he will get to see how his life always had divine purpose. He will learn, while he is still living, how his life intersected with a multitude of people and how significant his life was to bring salvation to thousands; while all he could see was his failures.
